

Exam card №1

Task 1. You are going to read the text aloud. You have 1,5 minutes to read the text silently, and then be ready to read it aloud. Remember that you will not have more than 2 minutes for reading aloud.

These days in the USA, around 60% of all university students have a part-time job to help pay for university, or simply to earn some spending money. Students work in the evenings and at weekends. Jobs such as waiting tables, making deliveries, cashier work and working in customer service are always very popular. There are also some jobs available on university campuses, such as a research assistant or a teaching assistant. During the summer holiday, a lot of university students choose to work at summer camps as camp counsellors. This way, they can spend time outdoors, organise sports and other activities, and have fun. There are many different kinds of camps, such as sports camps, language-learning camps, and technology camps. Counsellors get free room and board and they also earn a good wage.

Task 2. You have to answer six questions. Give full answers to them.

1. What is voluntourism?
2. Why do young people take on volunteer work?
- 3 How can youngsters help people in need in a practical way?
4. What do educational programs for children around the world involve?
5. Why do people say that every bit of help counts when it comes to voluntary work?
6. What type of volunteer holidays would you like to go on and why?

Task 3. You are going to give a talk about environmental problems. You will have to start in 1.5 minutes and speak for not more than 3 minutes (12-15 sentences). Remember to say:

- what the most serious ecological problems of our planet are
- what global warming is and what impact on the Earth it produces
- what changes people can do in their lifestyles to save the planet
- whether you do something to reduce your carbon footprint

You have to talk continuously.
